Amazon's Fire TV Gets Access to A Bunch of Newer & Classic Video Games Through Luna

By Luke Bouma on June 19, 2024 in All News, Amazon News, News

Today Amazon announced that it has partnered with the GOG game store to bring more than 40 titles to Amazon's Luna game service. This gives Fire TV owners who use the service access to classic games and new games like Stardew Valley, Hollow Knight, and Cuphead.

With Amazon's Luna gaming service you can use your Fire TV or Fire Tablet to play games on your TV. To make it even better, Amazon today announced that Ubisoft games like Assassin's

Key Takeaways

- Bloatware slows down Windows 11 PCs by taking up resources, disk space, and causing visual clutter.
- Remove bloat from the Windows Settings app by uninstalling unwanted apps and disabling unwanted features.
- Disable startup apps and optional features to further improve performance by preventing unnecessary background resource usage.

Windows 11 comes with a lot of extra 'stuff' installed that slows it down: instant messaging apps, music and streaming services, software trials, bad games and clunky third-party antivirus, and worst still, it tends to come back when your computer updates. Here's how to clear it all out.

Bloatware Slows Down Your Windows 11 PC

"Bloatware" is software on your computer that can make it run slowly by taking up disk space, running in the background and taking up resources, or just getting in your way. The added visual clutter from unwanted apps is also an issue: you'll perform tasks slower if you have to wade through icons to find the app you want, or are constantly interrupted by pop-ups and ads.

Apps that are considered bloatware often include software that came with your computer or was installed automatically that you didn't decide to install for yourself, like default Windows tools (for example, Photos and Weather apps), free trials for productivity and antivirus apps, and subscription services that bug you continuously to sign up to continue using them. Basically, if you don't want or use an app, you could consider it bloat.

Why Not Use Automated Tools to Debloat?

While there are third party tools that offer to clean up Windows for you, they aren't recommended for regular users: their trustworthiness can be questionable, and they may perform actions that you don't anticipate and can't reverse (like editing registry entries or system files).

Email as received – with side panel ads

The screenshot displays an email from HGTV. At the top right, there is a 'LIVE NOW BARGAIN BLOCK' indicator. The navigation bar includes links for TRENDING, SHOWS, TV SCHEDULE, DESIGN, OUTDOORS, LIVING, HOW TO, SWEEPSTAKES, and SHOP, along with a search icon. The breadcrumb trail reads 'Home → Shopping → News & Trends'. The main article is titled 'Mini Kitchen Lamps Are Trending – Here Are 10 We're Obsessed With From Amazon', dated June 10, 2024. The article text suggests taking a cue from Nancy Meyers-inspired kitchens. A large red circle highlights a side panel titled 'Go Shopping' which features three product recommendations: '10 Best Murphy Bed Kits of 2024', '13 Best Nightstands of 2024', and 'Americana Decor Buys to Celebrate the Fourth of July'. A 'Load More' button is located below these items. At the bottom of the side panel, there is a link for the 'HGTV Shopping Newsletter'.

Development Standards

35. Walls and Fencing Maintenance

Responsibility for maintenance of walls and fencing is as follows:

a. Association Owned Perimeter Walls:

These are the responsibility of the Association on the street side and both sides at the green belts. Commercial developers, worship sites, Sub-Associations and Owners of detached Dwellings are responsible for the side facing their property.

b. Developer installed retaining walls:

Each Owner's Unit number is located on their property deed, or it can also be found on the Clark County Assessor's website at:

https://www.clarkcountynv.gov/government/assessor/property\_search/real\_property\_records.php

Units 1-21: The walls were installed on the property line; thus, neighbors share the responsibility.

Units 22-51: The walls were installed on the lowest elevation Lot; thus, the lowest elevation Lot Owner is responsible for the total wall.

Sub-Associations are responsible for walls in the Sub-Association common area.

c. Developer installed metal fences on top of retaining walls:

The high elevation Lot Owner is responsible for the total metal fence.

d. Residential walls bordering Golf Courses and Green Belts:

These walls were built on the property Owner's Lot and therefore are the responsibility of the property Owner.

e. Property Owner installed walls and metal fences:

For walls and fences solely on one Owner's Lot, the property Owner has total responsibility.

strawberry

Stargazers are in for a treat this month: the first full moon of summer, also called the Strawberry Moon, will reach its peak illumination on Friday, June 21 at 9:08 p.m. EST, according to the U.S. Naval Observatory.

A full moon occurs when the moon is opposite the sun, as seen by us from Earth, NASA states. Typically full moons rise around sunset and set around sunrise. The moon will look full for a couple of days before it moves into the waning gibbous phase.

RELATED: A Rare Celestial Event Will Create a Temporary Star as Bright as the North Star—Here's How to Spot It

June's Strawberry Moon happens the day after the summer solstice, which is the longest day of the year. This is a rare occurrence, as full moons only occur within a day of the solstices about every 19 to 20 years, according to Space.com. The summer solstice in 2024 occurs on June 20.

Because the Strawberry Moon occurs so close to the solstice, which is when the sun is at its highest point of the year, this month's full moon will appear lower and bigger than usual, the Old Farmer's Almanac reports. This phenomenon is known as moon illusion.

June's full moon is also sometimes referred to as the Blooming Moon,
